Congratulations!

A special congratulations goes out to Mr. Maurice Moore, who was chosen to receive this year's Chancellor's Award in the Administration category. The Award was presented on November 23 during the Chancellor's Awards Ceremony at the 2008 Alabama College Association Annual Conference. This is a well deserved recognition for all the hard work Mr. Moore does for us at JD!

Warhawk Hoopla Week a Hit For Relay for Life!!

By Leigh Ann Wiggins

A big thanks goes to Mr. Maurice Moore, Britney Rogers, Mrs. Sharon Peacock, Coach Misti Nims, and the other officers and volunteers of the SGA for hosting Warhawk Hoopla Week Nov.17-21. There were many activities throughout the week, and each was a success! Although each activity had many participants, the most popular, not to mention the most memorable, was the Student-Faculty softball game. Mrs. Peacock says, " Thank you students, faculty, and staff for participating in the Faculty/Student Softball Game. We raised $75 for the American Cancer Society and had a lot of fun! While the scoreboard did not favor the faculty, the monetary vote did! There were 43 dollar votes for the faculty and staff and 7 dollar votes for the students,so everyone is a winner! We want to especially thank Coach Nims and Mr. Moore for help in organizing this event. Congratulations to the students on their victory!" If you missed watching the game Wednesday, Nov. 19th, then you're in luck!! Highlights of the game can be downloaded and watched after clicking on the link from the JD homepage. The month of November was very exciting at JDCC, and the SGA was very busy. Two meetings were held this past month, on November 6th and November 20th. Another event that the SGA took part in was setting up the Christmas Angel Tree in the Brewton Student Center. The presents for the local "angels" were due Dec. 2nd, and will be delivered to the children in time for Christmas. Thanks to all of you who chose angels. And, thanks once again to Mr. Moore and the SGA for all of the exciting events that took place throughout this semester. The officers have done a great job so far. Let's see what exciting things they have for us next semester! We hope everyone will get involved with SGA!

Psi Beta Spearheads Winter Food Drive

By Leigh Ann Wiggins

Psi Beta has been on a rocky road this semester due to the absence of Mrs. Patton and the lack of Psi Beta members. The annual Fall Food Drive did not receive the expected donations, so Psi Beta volunteers plan a recovery! There will be a Winter Food Drive hosted by Autrina Washington, Laura Henry, and Leigh-Ann Wiggins. The three volunteers plan to redeem the organization by hosting another food drive with a twist. Not only can you bring in individual items, you can also fill a bag. The request for a "What's in the Bag?" donation is from the local Community Food Pantry, and the list of food items can be seen all around campus. Not only are Psi Beta members asking for food donations from all of you, they are also asking for donations from the surrounding stores. Psi Beta needs volunteers! Leigh-Ann Wiggins says, "If any of you would like to volunteer to help receive donations, any and all help will be appreciated. Anyone willing to visit local stores to ask for donations for the food drive please contact Laura, Autrina, or myself. We are usually in the Leigh library or the TLC lab." Psi Beta hopes for a good turn out. Thank you for participating! Psi Beta also encourages you to send cards to our US service men, veterans, and their families through the Holiday Mail for Heroes program. See the JDCC Dec.4 email to all for the address and guidelines.

PTK News

The JDCC Phi Theta Kappa Honors Society is finishing off a good semester with a Christmas raffle! The proceeds go to the American Cancer Society. Donations of $2.00 will get your name into the drawing for the biggest prize package ever awarded by the JD PTK! Get your ticket today from a PTK member or one of the advisors, Ms. Redmon or Dr. Wagner. the drawing will be Dec. 10. Also, a reminder for those transferring to a four year university: if you are a member of PTK, you can receive a scholarship! For more information, please see one of the advisors.

Retro Outlandish "Hollerday Decoratin" Contest

Get in to the Holiday Spirit! Student Services and the Business Office are having a decorating contest! All money from the donation of $1 votes will go to the JDCC Relay For Life team! stop by in the Wallace Building and cast your votes!

Nursing Sock Drive Ends

The JDCC Nursing students conducted a successful sock drive for the patients at West Florida Community Care Center. Ashley Darby stated that although the center has a "clothing closet of used clothes, there are some things that are better new . . . and socks are one of these items." The collection ended on November 19, and 240 pairs of socks were collected. Thanks to the Nursing students for this thoughtful program, and thanks to all who donated socks!

JDCC Honors Program Students

Pictured above, as they prepare to begin, are some of the JDCC Honors Program students, who presented an English 102 Research Project Dec. 2 about the mystery of Jack the Ripper. The real identity of this famous murderer from the 19th century was researched by the class members, who then presented their research to the guests. Honors Program students also plan a caroling activity, and some are volunteering for Operation Santa. Students are also preparing for their annual Fall trip, which will be in New Orleans from Dec.10-12. Activities on the trip will include a Haunted History Tour and a visit to Mardi Gras World.

The SGA has decorated a beautiful Angel Tree in the Brewton Student Center and have many nice Angel Tree gifts to distribute. Pictured above are SGA Officers and volunteers and SGA sponsor Maurice Moore. Remember to Pop Your Tops!

By Amanda Stanford

Susan Mack in the Nursing Department thanks everyone for collecting pop tops for the Ronald McDonald House in Pensacola, FL. The last donation was 11 lbs. or 13,937 pop tops! Please keep popping your tops for the Ronald McDonald House. Notify the JDCC Nursing Department if you need your tops collected.

Warhawks Basketball Season Underway

By Andrew Lambeth

The Jeff Davis Basketball team has had a slow start this year, but the team has had a few highlights that show promise for the future. As of right now, the team is 0-8, but that doesn't completely represent the current play of the season. The Warhawks have played some of the top ranked teams in the country and have only had one home game. We had a good showing against Mississippi Gulf Coast, where the Warhawks scored 51 in the second half, which is evidence of the promise for games to come. Deforest Taite and Tysean Thompson, who are both Freshmen, have been leading the team in scoring, which is good for the future. The Warhawks have the large majority of their home games in the spring semester, so come out and support them. Get behind our team! Go Warhawks!!!
