JDCC's SGA Haunted House Fundraiser a Success!

By Leigh Ann Wiggins

The J.D. Haunted House will continue to have a scary but great reputation according to some of the dare devils who decided to take their chances in the spooky Haunted House. On Oct. 29th and 30th, the SGA hosted a treat for thrill seekers. Although there were many sound effects, not all of the screaming and crying was from a recording, as many of the thrill seekers came to realize that going through the SGA Haunted House would have their hair standing on end and chills going down their spines. Some may even have experienced extreme nightmares after going through such horrors. SGA President Brittney Rogers states, "The Haunted House was a great success. We had a blast making sure everyone who walked through it got scared. Each night we had about 20-25 people working in the House. We raised $930." The SGA also recently manned a Voter Registration table during the College Fair and is currently involved in several upcoming projects and activities. JDCC will be hosting a Warhawk Hoopla Week from November 17-21, and the Relay For Life teams and the SGA are making plans to keep things exciting with activities such as horseshoe, golf, and tennis tournaments, a fun run, ladder golf, and a student vs. staff softball game. The week will end with a lunch, a raffle drawing, and awards. See the schedule below for current plans. Watch for coming details.

Bring on Your Spirit!

By Courtney Folsom

The JDCC cheerleaders are pumped up and ready to go for their debut at Tuesday's first home basketball game on November 11. Sponsor Heather Stone has a squad made up of the following girls: Lindsey Foss, Jessica Jackson, Jessica McDonald, Amanda Aldridge, Meagan Baggett, Kendall Wolfe, Brittney Hammac, and Alicia Lodge. They have been honing their skills by practicing for the past several months. New stunts and new uniforms are what the cheerleaders have in store for the crowd. In addition to all home basketball games, you can also see the ladies in the annual Christmas parade.

JDCC Halloween Lyrical Lounge a Huge Success!

A good time was had by all who attended the special edition of JDCC's Lyrical Lounge on October 30 in the Neal Auditorium. There was a good turnout, and the event was emceed by student Nathan Lindsey. Faculty and staff members Dr. Lyn Gill, Deborah Albritton, and Kelly Stanford, and student Caleb Smith performed "The JD Dance" with student backup dancers Leigh Ann Wiggins, Whitney LaCoste, Tyler Parker, David Brooks, and Nathan Lindsey. Other featured readers were our JD President, Dr. Susan McBride, English Instructor Dr. David Willis, and students Jake Hodge and Jonathon McMath. Come out and enjoy our next Lyrical Lounge on December 3rd at 11 AM in the Neal Auditorium. It's a great change of pace to come and share original writing or read a published favorite, or even just to enjoy watching and relaxing for a few minutes.

PTK Volunteers Work at the Citizens For A Clean Southwest Alabama Booth at the Conecuh County Sausage Festival

By Angela Shoemo

JDCC's PTK organization had a great turnout at the Conecuh County Sausage Festival in Evergreen on October 11, 2008. We would like to give special thanks to Demetrius Barksdale for his leadership and planning for the booth, Dr. Dan Wagner and Mr. Maurice Moore for being our proxies, and last, but not least, all the volunteers from PTK and the SGA. The volunteers passed out information sheets, NO DUMP stickers, and balloons. The booth activities included free face painting, free bottled water, and "fishing" for prizes and icee's. We had a fantastic time learning and sharing valuable information about the effects of the landfill on our communities and represented Jefferson Davis Community College with a flawless volunteer spirit. PTK members are also involved in a Donut sale and are getting ready for their Auburn Alabama "Pick the Score" fundraiser.

JD Volunteer Alex Ramirez reminds festival goers to help support the NO DUMP initiative.

Psi Beta News

By Laura Henry

Halloween is over, and that means that Thanksgiving is right around the corner! Students may have already noticed the decorative boxes that are in some of the campus buildings. They are for Psi Beta's annual fall food drive. Psi Beta is accepting any kind of non-perishable food item, which includes the instant packages of mac-n-cheese, ramen noodles, etc. Ms. Patton is still away, but Psi Beta is still accepting applications, so don't forget to send them in! Also, if anyone is interested in helping with the food drive, contact Jeffery Faust.

JDCC's Fall 2008 College Fair, held October 15, introduced approximately 450 area high school students to various JD organizations and programs, as well as provided information from other schools. Many thanks to all those students, faculty, and staff who volunteered and participated!

JDCC's Drafting and Design students, Chris Steele, Marvin Lucas, Phyllis York, Jessica Clary, Clayton Weaver, and Adam Robinson are ready to share information about their program to high school visitors.

JDCC Honors Program in Full Swing

By Brittany Faulkner

The JDCC Honors Program has been having a busy fall semester. The Honors Program students, directed by Dr. Lyn Gill, have been working on projects such as Relay for Life preparations, the Lyrical Lounge, the College Fair Honors Booth, and the JDCC Foundation Murder Creek Classic Golf Tournament, at which 12 Honors students volunteered. Several Honors Program students also served as campus guides for the On Site SACS Review Committee, which was on campus October 28-29. The Honors Program students are currently making plans and preparations for the Fall Honors Trip. The students will travel to New Orleans this December and visit several sites of cultural interest in the area.

JDCC 08-09 BASKETBALL SEASON BEGINS !

By Andrew Lambeth

Recently, the Jeff Davis Basketball team kicked off the season with a tournament in Birmingham against some of the best teams in the state. In the first of two games, the Warhawks faced a proven team from Lawson State and lost 81-44. The game was very much a learning experience and the first collegiate game for our many freshmen. One of the few bright spots of the game came from Antron Holt, who had 11 rebounds. The proof of the learning experience came in the second game of the tourney. Our Warhawks faced another good team, and one of the best in our conference, Snead State. Even though Snead won 108-94, the team showed much improvement, and many of the players showed confidence and scoring ability. Deforest Taitte scored 26 points, Tysean Thompson and Logan Campbell each had 18, and Fred Underwood had 17. Chase Cornelius had 4 steals. After the tournament, Head Coach Allen Gainer commented, "The two teams we faced will be two of the top teams in our conference, and our next opponent, Hanceville, is one of the top in the country. We have almost all freshmen on the team, so it isn't surprising that we are having some "growing pains." The experience of competing against strong opponents early will pay off later in the year." The first home game for the basketball team will be November 11. Come out and support our Warhawks!

JDCC Lady Warhawks End a Successful Fall Softball Season

The JDCC Lady Warhawk Softball team has finished the 2008 fall season with one of its best fall seasons in the past 8 years, with 9 wins, 7 losses, and 2 tie games. Six of the seven losses were from either 4 year institutions or from schools that finished in the top 2 in their states, so the team did well against tough opponents. Coach Misti Nims states, "I am extremely happy with the depth of our pitching staff. They all have matured, and I am excited to see how they will perform this spring. Our freshman class is one of the best recruiting classes that we have had. They have mixed in well with our returning class. Also, we are excited to get 2 transfers from a local college. They both will be a big part of our success this year. Not only have the girls been performing well on the field, they have worked hard in the weight room and in the swimming pool! I think that their dedication and hard work are going to pay off in great amounts." Team member Jessica Morris stated, "The fall season has been going great. This is a good time to get to know all of the girls you will be playing with in the spring. It's been a lot of fun, and I hope we are successful and continue to have fun in the spring." Congratulations to the Lady Warhawks! We hope you will all come out and support their efforts when the spring season begins.

Warhawk Fall Baseball Ends

By Donovan Coker

The Warhawk baseball program came to a close with the last game being played on Tuesday, October 28, at Faulkner State. The team hoped to improve on their fall record; however, they came up just shy in the twelve innings that were played. They started off slow, giving up two runs in the 1st inning and four runs in the 3rd inning; however, the spirit came to life as the team was able to put one run up in the 5th and then was able to put up seven runs in the 6th inning, taking the lead of 8-6. The final score for the twelve innings was 10-9 with the Warhawks coming up short. The team has played very well this fall and is looking forward to the spring when the games really count. The Warhawks have eleven players who batted .300 or higher and some who have a 2.00 earned run average or lower. The team should be even stronger in the spring time when our injured players, such as Shane Ikner, Derrick Young, and Cody Sanderson, can get back in the game and help out with the already very talented and athletic team. Our first game of the spring is scheduled for Feb. 4 at home against Pensacola Jr. College. Please come out and support the Warhawks when the spring season begins.

Lady Warhawks Volleyball Season Closes

By Maggie Crutchfield

The 2008 season has come to an end for the Lady Warhawk Volleyball team. The team ended its season with a huge upset over Southern Union Community College on October 27. Unfortunately, this win was not enough to send the Lady Warhawks to the state tournament. This season was an uplifting and enjoyable season, and the team would like to thank everyone who attended its games and gave their support.

Angel Tree 2008

The S.G.A. is sponsoring this year's Angel Tree to provide Christmas gifts for needy children. The angels are on the Christmas tree in the student center of Brewton Campus and can also be picked up at the Bookstore on the Atmore Campus, so pick up an angel and purchase a gift to make a child's Christmas happier. Please support this worthy project! All gifts are due on Dec. 2.
